

CAMP ANDERSON, RIVERSDALE BEACH, WAIRARAPA

The camp's focus will be on taking inventory (your own), meditation, prayer, carrying the message and having fun.

Camp Features

- Close to the beach
- An open fire in the main meeting and dining room
- Indoor access bathrooms for the first 23 people that register
- Yummy food provided by the camp operators
- Canoes, rowboat and craypots for hire onsite
- Beach shop close by for snacks, burgers and cappuccinos
- Golf course and tennis courts close by
- Fishing charters available locally

Camp Anderson is a short walk from the beach and is situated on a grassed area surrounded by mature trees.

The camp has undergone extensive renovations withy much of the accommodation and facilities replaced with new buildings since 1997.

The camp has a mix of bunk rooms and cabins. Beds per room range from 2 beds to 14. There is room for tents and caravans on site.

Riversdale is a surf beach and is popular with board riders. Crayfish and Paua are easily obtainable for the skin diver and traditional "potter". The offshore fishing is superb and boats of up to 4 metres can be safely launched from the beach. Tn camp has a tractor that can be negotiated for this use. Charters for game or bottom fishing can be arranged with prior notice for groups of up to 6 persons.

WHAT TO BRING

Bring your sleeping bag, towel and pillow. Bring earplugs if you are a light sleeper 😊

Other than that the camp is fully serviced – they provide and cook all meals. Registration covers 2 nights accommodation, light supper Friday night, breakfast, lunch & dinner on Saturday and breakfast & lunch on Sunday.

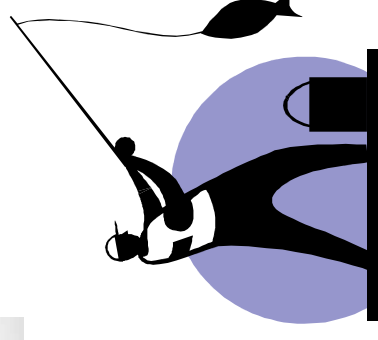

No dogs please

This is a non-smoking venue

HOW TO GET THERE

At the Northern end of Masterton, turn East towards the coast on Te Ore Ore road (Mobil on this corner). Approx 24 km later, turn right at the Riversdale turnoff.

Riversdale is approx 24 kms further on. Camp Anderson is on Pinedale crescent on the right hand side of the road as you enter Riversdale.
